

WORKSHEET [A] BUSINESS STUDIES
CLASS 12
Chapter -CONTROLLING

- Q1] “Controlling is a systematic process involving a series of steps.
- Q2] Name the concept which suggests that only significant deviations which go beyond the permissible limit should be brought to the notice of management
- Q3] Which technique of control is concerned with the contribution of actual and planned expenditure.
- Q4] “In ideal control system is the one that checks every bit of performance”. Do you agree with this statement? Give reasons to support your answer.
- Q5] ABC Ltd. is manufacturing auto spare parts on a large scale. The company policy is that 3% of the daily production could be defective. In the last two months it is observed that about 10-12% of production is defective. Which function of management is required to correct the above case? State the procedure to be followed to correct the things.
- Q6] “Comparing the actual performance with the laid standards, finding out the deviations and taking corrective action is an important function of a function of management”. Name the function and explain the process.